 - 4 or more registered students: $100

SECTION B: GRADE/LEVEL DIVISIONS

The GMTA Instrumental Concerto Auditions are open to students in Grades 6 through 11 on the following instruments: strings, woodwinds, brass, and classical guitar. All references to grades mean school grade levels.

SECTION C: REPERTOIRE REQUIREMENTS

1. REPERTOIRE REQUIREMENTS:

INSTRUMENTAL CONCERTO: One movement, ONLY, of any concerto written by any composer. Memorization of the Instrumental Concerto is required.

2. AUDITION TIME LIMITS:

There will be no minimum or maximum time limits for repertoire. Students will be allotted the following maximum times for the audition. A student may program a piece totaling more than 15 minutes in length, with the understanding that the judge will hear a maximum of 15 minutes of the program. Judges may stop a student on the piece before the maximum time has expired in order to write comments, etc.

Grade	Time Allotted
Instrumental Concerto	15 minutes

4. Students who perform different repertoire from that which is on the application form will be disqualified.

5. SCORES:

For all auditions, entrants must provide the judge with one copy of the music with measures numbered.

PHOTOCOPIES AND HANDWRITTEN COPIES ARE PROHIBITED FOR THE JUDGE'S, STUDENT'S, AND ACCOMPANIST'S USE. Accompanists and instrumentalists may use reproductions of single pages to facilitate page turns, but the appropriate published score must also be present on the music stand/rack.

6. Repertoire may not be changed after the registration deadline.

SECTION D: ELIGIBILITY FOR STUDENTS AND TEACHERS

1. Participating students must be currently studying voice or the instrument on which they are auditioning with the teacher who is entering them in GMTA Auditions. Collegiate members are not permitted to enter students in the Auditions. Active member teachers paying professional GMTA membership dues may enter students. Students of non-member teachers are subject to a different fee structure, imposed by the FAC of GMTA.
2. All membership dues must be effective by the date of the Audition Application Deadline.
3. Previous winners of the Instrumental Concerto Auditions and of the Piano Concerto Auditions may not compete in these competitions again.

SECTION E: GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Only teachers receive information regarding auditions, schedules, etc. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the teacher to give full details concerning the auditions to the student entrants.
2. Application fees are non-refundable.
3. Auditions will be closed.
4. All auditions are to be performed in person on the specified GMTA Auditions date. (No make-ups; no recordings – unless GMTA holds virtual auditions)
5. The entrant must provide an accompanist if the music calls for it. There is no restriction in the choice of an accompanist.
6. In no way are teachers, students, and parents to identify themselves to the judge, nor converse with the judge before or during the auditions or at any time before the judge's decision is announced.
7. The decision of the judge is final and cannot be questioned by the participant, teacher, parent or chair. Any teacher who contacts a judge following the GMTA Auditions, in an effort to challenge, clarify, or question a student's rating or comments, may forfeit the right to enter students in the following year's auditions.
8. Students may choose the first piece to perform at the auditions, with the judge choosing the order of the repertoire performance thereafter when there are more than two pieces. Judges may choose to stop a student on any or all pieces if hearing the pieces in their entirety will exceed the time allotment. Judges may stop students before the maximum time has expired in order to write comments. The monitor may only signal the judge when the allotted time is up.
9. At the judge's discretion, a Conference Recitalist (where applicable) need not be declared.
10. Comment Sheets and Certificates from the auditions will be mailed to the teacher of the participating student.
11. COMMENTS ONLY - Students in all divisions may enter at the appropriate grade level for COMMENTS ONLY.

12. Only the Vice-President/GMTA Auditions has the authority to disqualify a contestant. Judges, individual chairs, and coordinators should submit their questions to the Vice-President/GMTA Auditions.

13. All applications will be checked for appropriate literature and current membership of teachers. Applications not meeting these criteria are subject to disqualification.

14. Failure to abide by the rules, regulations and requirements as outlined by GMTA (and local associations, where applicable) will result in the disqualification of a contestant.

SECTION F: AWARDS/RECOGNITION

1. Each participant will receive a certificate.
2. A Winner and Alternate or Honorable Mention may be named.
3. The winner/s will be normally presented in performance at the annual GMTA Conference with a piano accompanist. The concerto accompanist will be given an honorarium in the amount of $200.00. The choice of piano accompanist is made by the student and student's teacher. GMTA does not provide an accompanist for the concerto performance at the conference.
4. On rare occasions an orchestra may be available, in which case the performer need not supply an accompanist. In the event an orchestra is available at the conference for the concerto winner or winners, the performers will be asked to perform the same piece used in the competition.
5. Previous winners may not compete in this competition again.
6. The Instrumental Concerto winner and Alternate or Honorable Mention and the Piano Concerto winner and Alternate or Honorable Mention, if so named by the judge, will be recognized in an issue of the GMTA Newsletter and posted on the GMTA web site: www.georgiamta.org.
