Fall 2011

I hope your summer has been enjoyable and you are refreshed as we begin a new academic year. Many exciting initiatives are underway for GMTA!

GMTA Conference

The 2011 GMTA Conference will be November 3-5 at the Columbus State University Schwob School of Music. David D'Ambrosio, Vice President for Programs, has prepared a terrific conference which will include piano pedagogue Dennis Alexander, pianist William DeVan, duo-organists Raymond and Elizabeth Chenault, composer Melinda Clark, and an impressive array of Georgia's Own presenters. This newsletter includes information regarding our headliners, sessions, recitals, registration, hotel suggestions, and driving directions regarding the conference. Please make you plans to attend our outstanding conference!

GMTA State Auditions Ad Hoc Committee

Rebekah Jones, Vice President for GMTA Auditions, is chairing an ad hoc committee to study the structure of our GMTA Auditions. Our very successful GMTA Auditions have simply grown to the point that very few institutions have the capacity to host the event. For example, at the most recent GMTA Auditions at Kennesaw State University this past April, 17 competition rooms were used simultaneously! The task force will make recommendations to the Executive Board in early 2012. Any changes to the GMTA Spring Audition structure will not take place prior to 2013. Serving on the committee with Rebekah Jones are Jan Adams, Glen Eckman, Kevin Hampton, George Mann, and Dawn McCord. Thank you to Rebekah, Jan, Glen, Kevin, George, and Dawn for their service to this vitally important initiative.

GMTA Facebook Page

The GMTA Facebook page, published at the April Executive Board Meeting, is off to a great start. The GMTA Facebook page has almost 100 "likes", has generated a large amount of traffic, and has proven to be a very healthy way to promote GMTA. If you are active on Facebook, please consider "liking" our page at <http://www.facebook.com/#!/pages/Georgia-Music-Teachers-Association/114475588629092>.

GMTA Website

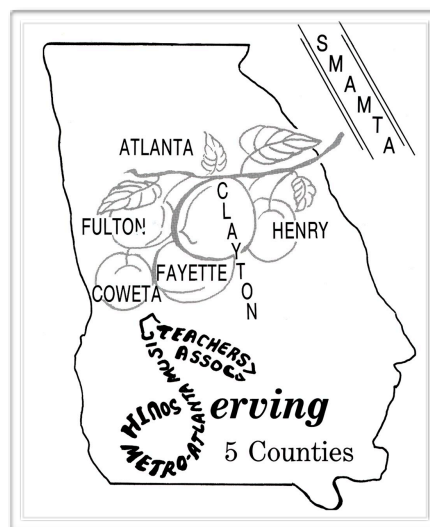

Jonathan Klein, Co-Vice President for Publicity, and Jenny Bailey, Website Chair, are spearheading an update of the GMTA website. The website update, which is projected to be complete by our 2011 GMTA Conference, will include an updated look to all the pages and menus, a reorganization of content that will make accessibility easier, a Paypal feature for GMTA donations, advertisements, and conference registration, new photos for the homepage slideshow, and a link to our Facebook page. Thank you to Jonathan and Jenny for their work on this project!

GMTA Logo

This summer the Finance Advisory Committee voted to update the GMTA logo. Jonathan Klein chaired this project, which resulted in a logo which is true to the character of our historic logo yet has color and clearer, more precise lines. The Executive Board approved the update of the logo during its August meeting. During the process of updating the logo, Immediate Past President Edith Sweatman researched the history of the GMTA logo. That history will be placed on the GMTA website. We are thrilled with the updated logo! Thanks to all involved in this effort!

GMTA is a strong and vibrant organization. Thanks to each of you for your service to our wonderful association.

Have a great start to your 2011-2012 academic year! I hope to see you at our conference in November!

MTNA President Ben Caton at the 2011 GMTA Conference

GMTA is honored to have MTNA President Ben Caton as a special guest at our 2011 Conference! President Caton will bring greetings to the membership at the Meeting of the Association on Friday afternoon of the Conference. On Friday evening, President Caton will be the featured speaker at our Conference Banquet.

Finally, on Saturday morning (7:45am-8:45am), President Caton will participate in an Open Discussion at a Dutch Treat Breakfast at the Columbus Marriott, Pemberton Room. The breakfast is open to 25 conference registrants. To register for the breakfast, please contact GMTA Executive Director Donna Trivette at georgiamta@gmail.com.

GMTA looks forward to MTNA President Ben Caton being at our conference!

A wide array of presentations awaits those who will be attending the 2011 Fall Conference at Columbus State University, November 3-5. We are pleased that Dennis Alexander will present pedagogy sessions. He is one of the world's most prolific and popular composers of educational piano music for students at all levels. Over the years, Mr. Alexander has been a clinician at state and national music teachers conventions. In 2009, he was invited by MTNA to conduct the intermediate level master class at their national convention in Atlanta. One session will explore the musical elements that create convincing performances of romantic repertoire, and another presentation will delve into questions regarding technique, motivation, repertoire, sight-reading, memorization, rhythm and other issues that every teacher must deal with regardless of the level of the student. There will also be an "Alfred Showcase" highlighting new materials from Alfred Publishing Co.

Our conference recitalist and master class headliner is William DeVan of Birmingham-Southern College, where he has been head of the piano faculty since 1980. Mr. DeVan won first prize in the international piano competition "Vianna da Motta" in Lisbon, Portugal in 1975. He has been soloist with the Zagreb Philharmonic, Croatia, and has performed in Australia. Every other year since 1999, he has performed in Paris, France, most recently in January, 2011. In addition, he has appeared in numerous recital appearances in Germany, China, and Taiwan. DeVan now travels throughout the United States giving concerts and piano workshops sponsored by Steinway. In June 2004, he was named "Teacher of the Year" by the Alabama Music Teachers Association at their annual convention. A winner of two Mellon Foundation Grants, he is co-author of Schumann: Solo Piano Literature, a comprehensive guide to the works of Robert Schumann.

Melinda Clark is our commissioned composer this year. She is composing an original 4-movement work which will be premiered by Ray and Beth Chenault, duo-organists, during the General Meeting. Currently Melinda serves as Organist and Director of Music and the Arts at North Avenue Presbyterian Church, Atlanta GA. She has been commissioned to write musical works for churches, cabarets, storytellers, and the music track for a video produced by Atlanta-based Storytime, Inc. The Chenaults' frequent performances throughout the United States and Europe have garnered critical acclaim in numerous reviews, and they have been featured artists at conferences and conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, and in Charleston during the Spoleto Festival.

Attendees who are interested in serving as presiders, who welcome and assist the presenters, are encouraged to send an e-mail to ddambrosio@agnesscott.edu. Registration for the conference is required. Indeed, a varied slate of topics will be available for all teachers who attend the Fall Conference. I am looking forward to seeing everyone in Columbus.

2011 GMTA CONFERENCE | NATS MASTER CLASS

In conjunction with the 2011 GMTA Conference, the Georgia Chapter of the National Association of Singing (NATS) will present a two-day master class by Jeannette LoVetri on Friday, November 4 from 2:00pm-5:00pm and Saturday, November 5 from 10:00am-1:00pm at the Columbus State University Schwob School of Music. The focus of the master class is the musical theatre singing as well as teaching the younger singer.

Jeannette LoVetri is Visiting-Artist-in-Residence at Shenandoah Conservatory and the founder of the first program on Contemporary Commercial Music (formerly called "non-classical") at the Conservatory, which is in Winchester, Virginia. The Contemporary Commercial Music Vocal Pedagogy Institute at Shenandoah was created in 2003 to address the needs of 21st century singing and teaching.

Ms. LoVetri is a Past President of The New York Singing Teachers' Association (NYSTA) and teaches the Music Theater Pedagogy segment of their Professional Development Program. She is also a member of the New York City Chapter of The National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) and the American Academy of Teachers of Singing.

Ms. Lovetri has worked for many years in liaison with noted medical and clinical specialists retraining injured singing voices. She was one of the first singing consultants at the Grabscheid Voice Center at Mt. Sinai Medical Center in New York City, working there under Dr. Peak Woo. She also consulted at The New York Eye and Ear Infirmary with Dr. Lucian Sulica and Alison Behrman, PhD., and Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center with Thomas Murry, PhD., while he was there, all also in New York City.

The attendance fee for the master class is $10 for each session or $15 for both sessions. For more information regarding this master class, please go to: www.ganats.org

I would like to encourage each of you, and your Local Associations, to make annual contributions to the GMTA Awards Fund. This fund includes the Composition Award, the Broadhurst Junior Piano Award, and the GMTA Honor Award, which funds the GMTA Auditions Senior Cash Awards.

As in years past, we will offer members attending the GMTA Conference an opportunity to buy tickets to win a gift, with the proceeds going to the GMTA Awards Fund. While the economy has left many supporters unable to donate large gifts recently, I am pleased to announce that Hutchins and Rea and J.W. Pepper have each donated gift certificates for our 2011 Awards Fund drawing. I appreciate their support during a difficult time, and I encourage all of you to purchase chances to win these prizes and support the Awards Fund while you are at the Conference.

MTNA introduced a membership campaign at the 2011 national conference. The program is called EACH ONE REACH ONE. Very simply stated:

EACH ONE Every member...that means YOU!
REACH Share your excitement about MTNA/ GMTA and your local association!
ONE Work to recruit one new member this year!

All of us can think of someone who would benefit from MTNA membership. Let's take the time this year to introduce them to MTNA. Tell them about the MTNA, GMTA and your local web sites and invite them to your local association meetings. Encourage teachers in your area to come and be a part of your local association.

As more information is released about the campaign, I will inform the local associations of how to receive free stickers, posters, etc. Please join us this year as we EACH ONE REACH ONE!

The current 2010-2011 Georgia MTA membership is as follows:

Active Membership	= 596
Collegiate Membership	= 65
Senior Membership	= 57
Senior Membership	= 46 (age 70 years plus)

CONGRATULATIONS to newly Nationally Certified Teacher of Music Mark Laughlin, NCTM, of Americus, GA!

CALLING ALL NCTMs

I received an email from Stephanie Freeman, NCTM recently and noticed that her email signature had “Nationally Certified Teacher of Music” listed under her name. I replied and thanked her for the reminder. She replied saying that Lois Finlay, NCTM had encouraged her to put that on all of her correspondence. Lois had told her, “You worked for it so why not show it!” Thank you, Stephanie and Lois!

GETTING THE MOST OUT OF CERTIFICATION

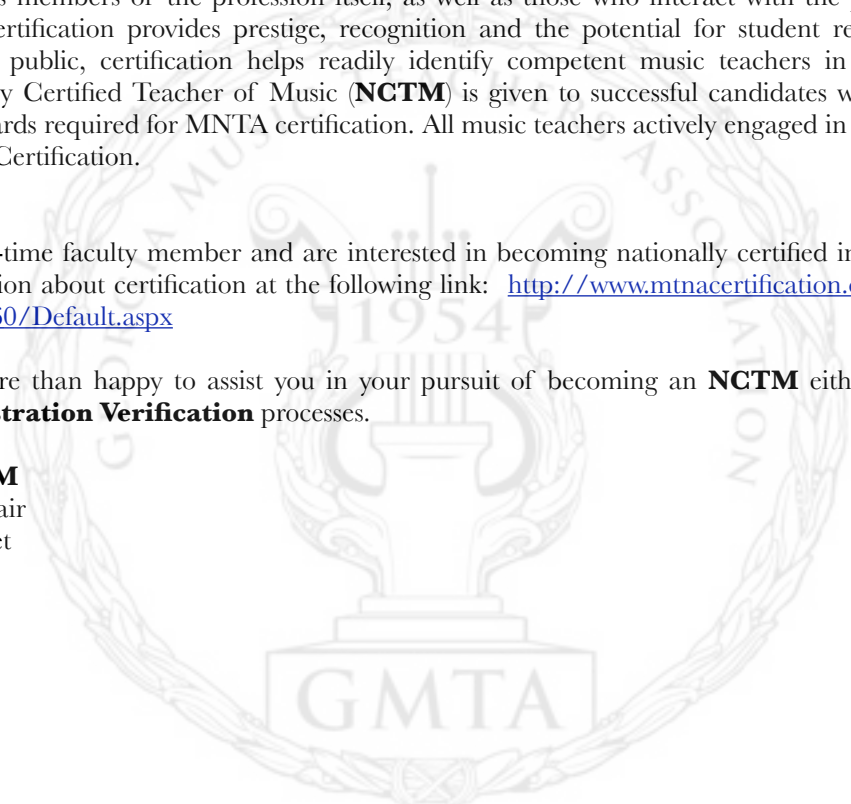

The FTD symbol for florists, the Underwriters Laboratory mark and the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval—these symbols instill public confidence and foster consumer preference because they are associated with quality, dependability and high standards. The MTNA Professional Certification Program exists to improve the level of professionalism within the music teaching field. It benefits members of the profession itself, as well as those who interact with the profession. For the music teaching professional, certification provides prestige, recognition and the potential for student recruitment and increased earning power. For the public, certification helps readily identify competent music teachers in their communities. The designation of Nationally Certified Teacher of Music (NCTM) is given to successful candidates who meet the professional competencies and standards required for MNTA certification. All music teachers actively engaged in the profession are eligible for MTNA Professional Certification.

COLLEGE FACULTY

If you are a full or part-time faculty member and are interested in becoming nationally certified in your teaching field, you may find more information about certification at the following link: <http://www.mtnacertification.org/CertificationProcess/CollegeFaculty/tabid/560/Default.aspx>

As always, I will be more than happy to assist you in your pursuit of becoming an NCTM either through the Teacher Profile or the Administration Verification processes.

GREATER MARIETTA MTA

Pam Barksdale | President

GMMTA is getting ready to install a new President and board at our Spring Luncheon. I am happy to hand the gavel to our next President, Cathy Sewell.

During the past year, GMMTA students participated in our popular annual Pianothon which was held at Belk at Town Center Mall in Kennesaw. The Solo Festival, GMTA Auditions and GMTA Theory tests in February and March kept participating teachers and students busy. The Auditions Winners' Recital was a highlight of the year.

Our program chairs arranged for wonderful programs this year which included:

- Teaching Jazz presented by Chuck Mandt
- Teaching Preschool Children presented by Dr. Paula Thomas-Lee
- "French Culture and Music: The French Piano Style of Faure and Debussy" presented by Dr. Carol Gingerich
- Introducing Erik Satie presented by George Mann

We will meet again in June to plan for the upcoming year.

SOUTH METRO ATLANTA MTA

Grace Caudle | President

We had a busy and productive year 2010-2011 beginning with a program on "The Healing Power of Music and Wellness" by Fabrice Medastin, student of Dr. Michiko Otaki and recipient of the Alma Northway Scholarship. This was followed by a program "Jazz Vespers: A Tool for Community Outreach" by Gary Motley director of Jazz Studies at Emory. In February we had a wonderful program given by our own Marcia Dunscomb, "Development: A Study of Compositional Devices". This was followed by a program on "Teaching Tips & Strategies" by our own Sharon Goza. We also held our Music Day Festival which includes a Composition Competition, a Recital given by the students of several teachers, a Christmas Social which we all shared potluck dishes and several members played Christmas Music, a Sonata/Sonatina Recital which is growing in participants every year, 2 scholarship auditions, and of course the GMTA Local Auditions and Theory Competition followed by our Honors Recital. We ended the year with our Spring Luncheon at a local restaurant. An interesting program was given by guitarist, composer James Cobb, brother of member Joanne Brown. We are looking forward to another year of excellent programs and activities for our students.

SAVANNAH MTA

Diane Boyd | President

The Savannah Music Teachers Association has many activities planned for 2011-2012. We will begin our student activities in October with a Hymnfest, always one of our most popular events. The fun Music Fair for grades K-6 and a fall 7th-12th grade recital will follow in November. In February we will have a skills evaluation day that we call "Piano Olympics" as well as Auditions and Theory tests and a Performance Evaluation Clinic for all students. In April we will have an Honors recital that will showcase our best pianists and at the same time raise money for the Armstrong Atlantic State University scholarship fund. Another event will have students playing to raise money for the Ronald McDonald House. In addition to planning a variety of programs and social events for teachers, we are reviewing and updating our Constitution and By-Laws.

We are looking forward to an exciting and eventful year for both students and teachers.

ROME MTA

Rebekah Jordan-Miller | President

The Rome Music Teachers Association elected new officers in May 2011. The newly elected officers include: Rebekah Jordan-Miller, President; Jerico Vasquez, Vice-President; Kyla Cummins Zollitsch, Secretary; and Glenda Potts, Treasurer.

We ended the year with a beautiful lunch prepared and hosted by Glenda Potts. Our very full year included a Music Fair at Berry College that featured participation of 32 students and a performance by Dr. Jerico Vasquez, Fall and Winter recitals, and a competitive Jazz and Pop Festival. RMTA members also sent several students to the state GMTA auditions in April.

The growing membership of RMTA has an exciting year ahead with the third annual Jazz and Pop festival in September, the Music Fair and Fall recital, and our first ever Sonatina and Sonata Festival in the Spring. Also, two RMTA members are presenting at the upcoming GMTA conference in Columbus, GA.

Finally, RMTA is partnering with the newly formed collegiate MTNA chapter at Shorter University in a variety of ways. Collegiate members help organize our festivals and recitals and also are welcome to attend RMTA meetings and workshops. For news and information throughout the year, feel free to visit our website at www.romemta.org.
